

The State Employees Bargaining Agent Coalition

The Truth About The Newest Early Retirement Controversy

Media speculation and rumors are swirling but it is vitally important that you, our members and supporters, know the truth about the newest early retirement controversy. The governor claims that an ERIP will save the state money; SEBAC knows it will cost taxpayers more in the long run and will stress state services that are already stretched to the breaking point.

Learn the facts about these two proposals by downloading the leaflet below and contact your legislator to ask them to support SEBAC's 18-point plan, which creates jobs and helps put Connecticut's economy back on track.

The Truth About the Newest Early Retirement Controversy

State Workers 'Jobs for All Working Families' Proposals (18-Point Plan)

To learn more about SEBAC's campaign for a fair budget and a livable state with great public services visit www.InThisTogetherCT.org.